

Matthew Michalewicz Appointed to UNC-Charlotte's Business Advisory Council for the Belk College of Business

CHARLOTTE, N.C., July 23, 2002 – NuTech Solutions, Inc., a provider of advanced predictive analytics and profit optimization software products for Global 1000 companies, announced today that the company's president and CEO, Matthew Michalewicz, has been appointed to UNC-Charlotte's Business Advisory Council for the Belk College of Business Administration.

The Belk College Business Advisory Council is a group of business and community leaders who work to increase the visibility and presence of the college in the business community, and who provide feedback so the college can better serve the community.

"Matthew's leadership and business talent will make him a valuable addition to our Business Advisory Council," said Claude Lilly, Dean of Belk College of Business Administration. "We look forward to his contributions to UNC-Charlotte and the Belk College of Business Administration."

Matthew Michalewicz graduated Magna Cum Laude from UNC-Charlotte in 1998 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Financial Management, and also was named "Young Alumnus of the Year" by UNC-Charlotte in March of this year.

"UNC-Charlotte and the Belk College of Business Administration have had an instrumental role in helping Charlotte quickly become a rising business powerhouse in the southeast by turning out many of the business leaders that have helped make it happen," said Michalewicz.

Also on the advisory board are senior executives with Bank of America, Wachovia, Duke Energy Corporation, PricewaterhouseCoopers and Deloitte and Touche.
